

Armenian Switzerland: Hiking Adventure To Tavush Province

We'll start the day by heading to the picturesque town of Sevan. Our first stop is the stunning Sevan Peninsula. Here we'll pay a visit to the Sevanavank Monastery, a place filled with history and charm.

Next we'll continue our way towards the lush Tavush region, a place known for its incredible greenery.

Our journey continues to Parz Lake, a hidden gem nestled within Dilijan National Park. It's a small lake, but the scenery is incredible. Our hike begins here, leading us through the enchanting landscapes of Dilijan National Park. Here you will feel like you've stepped into paradise.

Our hike concludes near the Goshavank Monastery, another historical gem.

After the hike we make our way to Dilijan, where you'll explore the town's old quarters and meet local craftsmen.

Get ready for a day of adventure, exploration, and natural beauty in Armenia's Tavush Province!
